

THE NATION'S BEGINNINGS
Outline Map

North America, About 1450

Directions: Indicate where the following Native American groups lived in North America by 1450: Algonquins, Apaches, Cherokees, Coolas, Crees, Crows, Dakotas, Inuits, Iroquois, Miamis, Natchez, Navajos, and Pomos. Draw a line from the region where each group lived to a space outside the map where you can write both the name of the group and the name of the region. Use the map entitled "Native American Culture Regions of North America in About 1450" in Section 1 of your textbook for reference.
