

NAME: _____

CLASS: _____

DATE: _____

Vocabulary

Chapter 7 Section 1

DIRECTIONS: Use the information in your textbook to identify the correct person or event in the following sentences.

Word Bank

- | | | |
|-----------------------|------------------------|------------------------|
| • Plessy V Ferguson | • Ida B Wells | • W.E.B. Du Bois |
| • Fifteenth Amendment | • Literacy Test | • Las Gorras Blancas |
| • Tuskegee Institute | • Poll Tax | • Grandfather Clause |
| • Jim Crow Laws | • Booker T. Washington | • De Facto Segregation |

DIRECTIONS: Use the information in your textbook to fill in the blanks with the correct answer..

1. Many southern governments enacted _____ laws to segregate whites from blacks.
2. The _____ forbade states from denying someone the right to vote on the basis of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.
3. A _____ was a law that charged money for people to vote.
4. Many states passed _____ or understanding tests that had to be passed before one could vote.
5. Many Southern states passed _____ that allowed people to vote if their ancestors had voted prior to 1866.
6. _____ were the customs that developed that kept blacks segregated from whites.
7. The Supreme Court in 1896 ruled in _____ that Jim Crow laws were legal.
8. _____ was an African-American who urged former slaves to take up vocations and work hard and in so doing segregation in time will fall away.
9. The _____ was founded by Booker T. Washington in Alabama to serve as an all black school focused on teaching blacks a vocation.
10. A Harvard graduate, _____ disagreed with Washington and urged blacks to demand the rights they deserved.
11. An African-American activist, _____ worked at legislation that targeted lynching.

NAME: _____

CLASS: _____

DATE: _____

Chapter 7 Section 2

Vocabulary

DIRECTIONS: Use the information in your textbook to match items in columns.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. ____ A man known for his integrity, he would be elected president of the United States twice, but not in consecutive order. | A. Gold Standard |
| 2. ____ A powerful and corrupt political “boss” of New York City who controlled the spoils system. | B. Crime of 1873 |
| 3. ____ A political jobs system that gave jobs to loyal followers and supporters. | C. Chester A Arthur |
| 4. ____ A system that selected people to fill political jobs based on qualifications.. | D. Coinage Act of 1873 |
| 5. ____ The assassin of James Garfield who it was said was sore at Garfield for not giving him a job. | E. William Marcy Tweed |
| 6. ____ Became president after Garfield’s death and supported the civil act to reform the spoils system. | F. Charles J. Guiteau |
| 7. ____ Enacted by congress in 1883 and put an end to the direct abuses of the spoils system. | G. Grover Cleveland |
| 8. ____ The money circulating in the United States was backed by gold. | H. Spoils System |
| 9. ____ Congress no longer authorized the coinage of silver. | I. Pendleton Civil Service Act. |
| 10. ____ What the supporters of the coinage of silver called the Coinage Act of 1873. | J. Civil Service |

NAME: _____

CLASS: _____

DATE: _____

Chapter 7

Section 3

As You Read

DIRECTIONS: Decide if the each item below is true or false. If it is false, write on the line provided a word or phrase that will make it true.

1. T / F Oliver H. Kelley was a Nebraska farmer and businessman who helped to organize the first group whose aim was educating the farmer, and regulation of the railroads and granaries.

2. T / F The Farmers Alliance was the of the agricultural organization that Oliver Kelly helped form.

3. T / F The Grange helped to lobby for the formation of the Interstate Commerce Commission which would regulate trade across state lines.

4. T / F A group of black farmers organized the Colored Farmers Alliance: in the 1880s.

5. T / F The Populist Party was a “people’s party” whose focus was on the working people.

6. T / F The official views of the Populist Party was spelled out in the Oklahoma Platform which covered problems that they saw for the common man, and remedies to achieve more equality.

7. T / F The Populist Party selected democrat William Jennings Bryan as its presidential candidate in the election in 1896.

8. T / F The “Cross of Gold” speech was by William McKinley in 1896 that challenged the nation to accept the free coinage of silver and not just gold.

9. T / F William McKinley won the presidential election of 1896 and his election is seen as the end of the influence of the Populist Party.
