

WORLD WAR I AND BEYOND

Interpreting a Political Cartoon

Some Americans feared that membership in the League of Nations would create too many foreign entanglements. ♦ Study the cartoon, and think about its message. Then, on a separate sheet of paper, answer the questions that follow.

The League of Nations

©The Granger Collection, New York

Questions to Think About

1. What do each of the main figures in the cartoon represent? What are they doing?
2. Draw Inferences Why do you think the cartoonist used marriage in this cartoon?
3. Detect Points of View What is the artist's point of view on the League of Nations? What clues support your determination?